Sir Charles Parsons School is a secondary school (11 - 19) catering for students who experience significant and profound learning difficulties. This includes students whose behaviour may at times challenge those supporting them. The school was judged by Ofsted to be an 'outstanding school' after its last three inspections in October 2006, June 2010 and March 2019. In June 2011, the school moved into new, state of the art purpose built accommodation.

The school is seeking to appoint 3 general subject teachers for September 2019. We would welcome applications from teachers with general subjects experience. These posts will be fixed term for 1 year.

The school is looking to appoint colleagues who are:

- enthusiastic and keen to support and develop new initiatives;
- able to work as a member of a team with educational and other professionals, both from within and outside the school;
- committed to improving the provision offered to our students through rigorous professional self review and development;
- is resilient and able to focus on finding solutions to the issues and problems experienced in any school.

Successful applicants will join a school:

- with a friendly, supportive team ethos;
- that provides excellent professional development opportunities;
- which is dynamic, forward looking and constantly challenging itself to further improve the quality of provision it provides.

Applications are welcomed from experienced and newly qualified teachers with an interest in working with young people with special educational needs.

The school is strongly committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The successful applicants will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS disclosure and a range of other recruitment checks.
